교과목 교육목표 (Course Objectives)	By the end of the course with the completed requirements, students will: - know and understand the history of Asia, - know and understand sources of cultures in Asia, - will be able to distinguish between the countries in the context of culture and history, - will know the factors and the dynamics of relations between countries that have influenced and shaped history and cultures in Asia.
교과목개요 (Course Description)	With its broad perspective, this course explores the history and culture of Asia. This course will introduce students to this region by analyzing the rise and development of Asian civilizations from prehistory to the period immediately before Western colonial expansion in the region. The course will emphasize the complex history and cultures that existed long before Western contact. Students will study the history and cultures of China, Japan, India, and Southeast Asia, and their interactions with each other and the outside world. The course focuses on the development of political structures, religions and philosophical beliefs, and technological innovations in the region. Asia today has been shaped by these forces, and to understand the region in recent history, one must grasp the key developments of this period. https://youtu.be/z1w803A_T0
