교과목 교육목표 (Course Objectives)	After successful completion of this course, students will be able to: -Analyze and understand the major themes of international relations and global politics -Develop an appreciation of theory and its utility in the study and practice of International Relations -Improve critical thinking and writing skills -Demonstrate the ability to describe the social, political, and economic forces that influence social behavior and the global system -Use knowledge of international affairs in a practical problem-solving way to address issues of immediate international concern
교과목개요 (Course Description)	This course introduces the theoretical study of international relations, with a focus on structures, systems, and strategies. Students will learn to perform basic research and analysis through writing and thinking about events in world politics from different perspectives, including realism, liberalism, and feminism. Readings are drawn from historic and contemporary scholars of international relations, cover a wide variety of issues, and are grouped together in conflicting pairs where possible. Assignments are a mixture of analysis, research, and experiential learning.
