교과목 교육목표 (Course Objectives)	1. Arrive at a deeper, more comprehensive understanding of globalization and its outcomes at a number of levels (local, national, regional and global) 2. Become proficient with some of the major facts, concepts, theories, and insights of globalization 3. Understand the dynamics of social change in global cities around the world through social scientific considerations of the city of Seoul.
교과목개요 (Course Description)	1. This class is open to both Korean and international students. The lecture will be held entirely in English, but upon request, a summary of the lecture can be provided in Korean. The summary is basic, and will not cover all lecture material. Korean students should be prepared to rely solely on English lecture, not Korean summaries. 2. This course introduces the process of globalization and its consequences on the lives of people at the local, national, and international levels. It provides students with a critical sociological understanding of the economic, social, cultural, technological, and political aspects of globalization. In particular, it focuses on the characteristics of global cities and explores the process of globalization in Seoul.
